The MNPS Student-Parent Handbook, found online at mnps.org/handbook, has important information for you and your student to review.

The Student-Parent Handbook is easy to access, search and bookmark to review later. It is designed to be a reference guide you and your student can use as the school year progresses.

WHAT YOU’LL FIND IN THE HANDBOOK

While not all material will apply to you and your student, there is information in the handbook that will help you interact with your student’s school and be the best advocate for your student’s educational needs, including:

- Community Resources and Programs
- Disciplinary Information
- Supports for All Students
- General Policies and Procedures
- Complete Permission Forms at permissions.mnps.org
- Read the Handbook Online at www.mnps.org/handbook
